

Monster Budget Cuts?

Budget Cuts are Frightening.

There is relentless pressure on public libraries to provide more and better services with fewer resources. Public support has been dramatically reduced and private help hasn't made up the difference.

PARTNER WITH PROFESSIONALS

There is help. Partnering with Brodart brings you fully cataloged and processed materials at a much lower cost. Our production environment delivers millions of custom-cataloged and processed books every year. Precisely as requested. At a fraction of your local cost.
